

STEPPING STONES MUSIC NEWSLETTER

Readings, resources, and activities to help the parent keep themselves and their young learner musical at home.

July 2nd, 2020

Volume. 11

Welcome!

Hello, and welcome to the final exhilarating edition of Ancillae's Online Musical Newsletter! As always, this week's newsletter is determined to help the parent and their young learner become more musical at home while also helping the parent become aware of music's value as a development tool in education. Thank you for reading and please never hesitate to reach out.

RESOURCE OF THE WEEK - THE INSPIRED CLASSROOM MUSIC EDUCATION INTERGRATION

WHAT EFFECTS CAN MUSIC HAVE ON STUDENT SUCCESS? [LINK]

"The music is not in the notes, but in the silence between."

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart
[Famous Composer]

Playlist of the Week

A carefully selected collection of music proven to engage the brain. Perfect for playing around the house during the day.

This week's focus is some of the Mr. Esposito's favorite pieces for piano!

Stephen Heller - Celestial Voices

Frederic Chopin - Scherzo No. 2, Op. 31

Ludwig Van Beethoven - Pathetique
Sonata 1st Movement

J.S. Bach - Fugue in C Major, WTC

Walt Disney's Silly Symphonies Merbabies [Link]

This week's special viewing is another classic from Walt Disney's animation studio. This underwater installment in the series features some fantastic music as well as the quality visuals you would expect from an older Disney production. Perfect for putting on during snack time or any other downtime during the day!

Musical Activities

Sound Garden - Sound Exploration

This week to start things off we will be practicing our music exploration skills by creating our own sound garden with the help of our parents. In a sound garden, you are free to explore sounds by using a variety of different objects as instruments. Click the link below for a full description of the activity.

Homemade Instruments Tutorial Video

This week we will be adding to our at home musical instrument collection with this simple video. This video shows how to make a variety of different instruments in just a few minutes with some simple supplies. Some of the instruments we have done before in different way, but others are completely new! Enjoy!
